SAD DEATH .- In describing the scenes at the sinking of the steamer Cotton Valley, on the Mississippi, the New York Hearld's corres-

"When the steamer sack the passengers cndeavored to save themselves by clinging to such bexes or bales as were floated off from the steamer. It seems pretty certain that the only passenger lost was Miss Sanford, from Loudoun county. Va. This young lady was told to save herself, but stopped to dross and so found a watery grave. Her aunt, who was with her. was saved. The last that was seen of the poor girl she was standing in her hight dress calling piteously for assistance. Her long hair was streaming in the storm, while her thin gar ments, wet with the raio, cluog closely about her. She was told to jamp, but seemed paralyzed by fear and made no effort to save herself and while she was calling for aid and before it could reach her the steamer gave a lurch and a plunge forward and the dark waters closed over the poor girl forever." Mrs. H. L. Sanferd, the aunt of the young lady, who was lost, was saved through her own exertions, swimming to the opposite shore, a distance of fully half a mile. The two ladies spont the night at the Man-sion house, in this city just one week ago, being then on their way South.

POTOMAC FRUIT GROWERS. - The monthly meeting of the Potomac Fruit Growers' Association was held in Washington vesterday. President Gilliogham occupied the chair and Dr. Spodgrass acted as secretary.

It was determined to have the annual pic nic and reucion on the first Tuesday in January, the time for the regular monthly meeting. and a committee to perfect the arrangements for the same was appointed.

The committee appointed to revise the con-

UNFORTUNATE. - The Cumberland Times

Says:
"Mr. David Hoadley, captain of the canal boat Laura Agnew, was in the city yesterday, and gives a sad account of his last trip to Georgetown and his attempt to get here. He had a tied up and came to Cumberland by rail to settle up his business."

Horse Kuleb.-Three horses attached to he wagon of Mr. Daniel Hough, who lives near Deanesville, Fairfax county, became frightened by a train on the Alexandria and Frederisksburg Railway, on Fayette street, yesterday evening, about 5,30 o'clock, and the wheel horses turning suddenly, threw the lead horse to the ground, so that he sustained injuries from which he died during the night at Mr. Charles Cox's stable yard.

HABEAS CORPUS .- Thomas H. Bradley, who was yesterday committed to jail by Justices Padgett and Ballenger, on the charge of seduc tion under promise of marriage, was brought before Judge Lowe of the Corporation Court, this morning, under a writ of habeas corpus, and had his bail fixed at $1700 for his appearance at court. The security had not been obtained at a late hour this evening.

REVIVALS,-The revival at the Baptist Church on Washington street continues with unabated vigour. Rev. Mr. Wharton, of Luray, preached an able discourse last night to a of the paster, Rev. J. T. Pickney. POLICE ITEMS .- Justice Ballenger tried the following cases this morning :- Four porters for disorderly conduct at the A. & F. depot were fined and discharged. Eli Butler, colored, for throwing stones in the street was fined and discharged. Wm. Hall, colored, for the same offense and for disorderly conduct was fixed, and, in default of payment, sent to the work house. FATAL ACCIDENT. - Alice Kitts, colored, who ives on Royal street, between Queen and Princess streets, went up town for a few minutes vesterday evening, leaving her infant, two menths old, iging on the bed, with two older enildren in the room. While she was gone, the child fell from the bed to the floor, breaking

The Vice President appointed Messrs. Ferry and Davis, of Illinois, and Randolph the committee to inquire in regard to the omission of the Hot Springs clause from the enrolled copy of the Sandry Civil Appropriation bill passel at the last session of Congress.

This committee was authorized by the resolution submitted by Mr. Conover yesterday.
Mr. Saulsbury, of Delaware, introduced a bill relating to the redemption of U. S. legal tender notes, which was referred to the Com mittee on Finance. It authorizes the Secretary of the Tressury in redeeming U. S. legal tender notes, as required by the special resumption act, to pay 75 per cent, of the amount in gold coin, and 25 per cent, on the standard silver

The preamble and resolution submitted by Mr. Harris, of Tennessee, on Monday last, providing for the appointment of a committee to comire in regard to the best means of preventing the introduction and spread of the epidemto diseases, especially yellow fever and cholera, within the limits of the United States, was agreed to, with an amendment providing that the committee shall consist of seven sonators sit and act in emigaction with any similar committee of the House of Representatives.

Mr. Matthews, of Obio, submitted a motion to proceed to the consideration of the Texas Pacific Railroad till, but Several senators opposed it on the ground that it would lead to a lengthy discussion, and a matter of such importance should not be considered during the first week of the session. The Senate, by a rising vote of year 19, nays

22, rejected the motion. Mr. Edmunds, of Vermont, gave notice that on Monday next he would call up, for action, Senate bill to amend sundry provisions of chap. 1, title 3 of the Revised Statutes of the United States relating to presidential elections, and to provide for and regulate the counting of the votes for President and Vice President and the decision of the questions arising thereon. He hoped the senators would examine the bill and be prepared to proceed with its consideration.

Mr. Davis, of West Virginia, submitted a resolution instruction the Committee on Aericulture of each of the Houses of Congress to consider the general subject of agriculture and report by bill what can be done by the general government to better advance and foster the agricultural interests.

Laid on the table and he gave notice that he would call it up seen to submit some remarks The Senate then at 12:50 went into executive session, and when the doors were reopened at 1:10 adjourned until to morrow.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES The Speaker appounced that the first busicess in order was the consideration of the Ganeva Award bill reported to the last session from the Judiciary Committee: but On motion of Mr. Kautt, of Kentucky, the consideration was postponed until Tuesday Mr. Wood, of New York, offered a resolution calling on the Secretary of State and Postmaster General for any information received by them since the last session of Congress in relation to the commercial and postal intercourse between the United States and the countries of South America, which was adopted. The House then ad jurned after passing the
